

West Midlands Mantle of the Expert Network
presents

‘A Day with Dorothy Heathcote’

This special event is designed as an introduction to the ‘Mantle of the Expert’ system – an innovative method of teaching through drama, which is currently being introduced in schools throughout the country, with support from the QCA.

The system has been developed by Dorothy Heathcote – one of the world’s leading drama teachers.

Date: Saturday 14 June

Time: 9.30am-4pm

Venue: Newman College, Genners Lane, Bartley Green, Birmingham, B32 3NT

Lunch and refreshments are provided and included in the cost.

The West Midlands Mantle of the Expert Network is hosting a day with Dorothy at Newman College in Birmingham, on June 14.

Dorothy will take delegates through the first steps in a Mantle of the Expert programme – and show how the system can be used to address a range of curriculum areas, such as history, PHSE, etc.

This is your chance to learn more about the system – and how it can inspire and motivate your pupils!

Cost:

Members of West Midlands Mantle of the Expert Network: £15

Non-members: £45

Membership of the West Midlands Mantle of the Expert Network costs just £50 for a school/institution, and £30 for individuals.

Join now, and instantly save £30 on every ticket you book for the Dorothy Heathcote event!

Places for the event are strictly limited – book now!

Please complete the separate booking form, attached, and send it to: Kevin Orchard, West Midlands Mantle of the Expert Network, c/o Wollescote Primary School, Drummond Road, Stourbridge, DY9 8YA

About us

The West Midlands Mantle of the Expert Network exists to enable members to learn more about this unique system, and to support them in their professional development. It has been formed in association with Newman College, Birmingham.

We hold at least three meetings a year, plus special events. Members also receive regular mailings. For further information, contact: iona.wyngate@virgin.net
